Opportunity of Having a Singer of the Ability of Miss Louise Stallings Does Not Ordinarily Come to Citizens of Boroughs of Charleroi's Proportions

The musical numbers which are scheduled to appear on the program of Charleroi's 1924 Chautauqua, promise to be among the most delightful entertainments of the year. A pleasing variety of types will be offered, ranging from the classical song recital of Miss Louise Stallings, the noted American lyric mezzo-soprano, to the popular orchestral and vocal concert presented on the closing day by the Oceanic Ladies Quintet.

The opportunity of hearing a singer of the calibre of Miss Stallings does not ordinarily come to citizens of boroughs the size of Charleroi, so that her program should be a treat to all music lovers. After one of her recitals in Aeolian hall, Gilbert W. Gabriel, writing for the New York Sun, said in part: "A program which might well be taken as a model for charm and diversity introduced Louise Stallings, soprano, in Aeolian hall yesterday afternoon—"Miss Stallings, young slim, and a vivid personality in equally vivid costume, has the knack of finding and feeling her audience with picturesqueness. Her voice in its lower and middle register is pleasing—her interpretations are full of vitality and drama."

Greta Bennett in the New York American said: "Louise Stallings is a singer of charm and a program maker of originality. A mezzo-soprano who possesses intelligence, style, and the gift of conveying the meaning of every word to her audience, she devoted these qualities to a program far removed from the beaten path."

Miss Stallings will be assisted in her concert by William Durieux, Dutch cellist and Miss Marion Carley, pianist and accompanist. Mr. Durieux has been soloist for both the Boston Symphony and New York Philharmonic orchestras, while Miss Carley is one of the seven or eight people who accompany the Metropolitan opera stars on their concert tours. Two years ago she was accompanist for Madam Alda.

Among the other musical attractions is listed the Pan-American Marimba band, composed of seven (Continued on page five)

INSURANCE FOLK IN A DAY'S OUTING

The entire force of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company closed the doors of their offices today, and together with their families and friends, motored to Oakland park to spend the day enjoying their annual outing. There are approximately 100 in attendance. The day is brimful of activities in the line of various sports and games, and the basket lunches play an important part in the program. The company has a good day for its outing, with everything in its favor, including fine weather, and from all indications will be a day long to be remembered by all as one of the most successful of the year.

Heart Trouble Causes Death Of B. B. Ray

Brice B. Ray, aged 66, was suddenly seized with an attack of heart trouble yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock, while he was viewing the chickens at 121 Prospect avenue, and died a few minutes later.

Mr. Ray, who has been convalescing from a few months' illness, was sitting on the back porch, when he decided to take a short walk to the end of the yard and see the chickens. Mrs. Brice was working in the kitchen at the time and saw her husband fall. Her screams brought the immediate assistance of neighbors. A physician was called, but Mr. Ray was beyond medical aid.

The deceased, who was a well-known and highly respected resident of Charleroi, first came here when the borough was known as the McKean farm, thirty-three years ago. He was employed in the Shovel works, but has lived retired since that company has left this vicinity. He was a member of the Royal Arcanum of Charleroi, and also a devoted member of the Washington Avenue Presbyterian church. He was born in Allegheny.

Besides his wife, Mrs. Clementine Ray, the deceased is survived by three sons, Andrew, Brice and Harry Ray, all of this place, one sister, Mrs. Lydie Rippe, of Allison Park, and two brothers, Robert and Wick, both of North Dakota.

Funeral services will take place Monday afternoon at the late home, with the Rev. Frank Montgomery in charge, followed by interment in the Monongahela cemetery. 37122p

COLORED FOLK HAVE TROUBLE

D. Benassi and August Rialto of this place have filed suits against the Greensboro Gas Company, two suits, to recover an aggregate of $5,100 damages alleged to have been caused by a gas explosion in a house here on January 21, 1922.

It is alleged that the gas escaped from a main of the defendant company in Twelfth street, and followed a sewer into the house owned by D. Benassi, in Meadow avenue, where it was ignited by a stove, and it is alleged that the residence was destroyed.

This was a two-story tile block building. The owner, D. Benassi, brings suit to recover $3,500 as damage to the building and $1,600 for loss of rents. August Rialto, the occupant of the building brings suit to recover $600 for furniture. The defendant company is charged with negligence.

MOB THREATENS TO DROWN A GIRL'S ASSAILANT

Beilair, Ohio, July 19—After being rescued from a mob of miners, who threatened to drown him in the river for the murder of Anna Kresko, age 7, a man who said he lost his memory, was brought to Beilair today and placed under heavy guard.

The man is a miner, police said. The mob assembled last night in response to the little Kresko girl's screams. She was attacked on her way home from the store at Big Run, 10 miles south of here, and was dead when physicians reached the scene. Her mouth was full of grass and a rope was tied tightly around her neck. Her alleged assailant fled. A mob of miners approached a few minutes later overtaking him on the banks of the river and severely beat him. In a statement to the police today, the captive miner said he did not remember anything that happened at Big Run, being drunk with moonshine.

MORGAN GIVES HIMSELF UP

Walking into the Monessen police station yesterday afternoon, Willie Morgan, colored, aged 21, gave himself up, claiming that he had accidentally shot Howard Campbell yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, wounding him to such an extent that Campbell is in a critical condition in the Memorial hospital.

The shooting took place at the Campbell home in 1228 Highland avenue, Monessen, where Morgan is a boarder. Police were unable to question Campbell yesterday, due to the fact that the man was unconscious, but when he regained consciousness last night he stated that the shooting was accidental. The bullet entered Campbell's right chest and his condition is said to be very grave. Campbell will undergo an operation tonight for the removal of the bullet.

Morgan will be held at the lock-up, pending the development of Campbell's condition.

LAW VIOLATOR IS ARRESTED

Constable Ben Gibson, Monongahela, yesterday arrested one Joe Wehnris, of near Crookham, on the Monongahela-Finleyville highway, charging him with violating the liquor laws. He was placed in the lockup at Monongahela, and will be given a hearing before Alderman R. L. Ellwood.

WATERS PATROLLED FOR CHILDREN

Bridgeport, Conn., July 19.—Sea planes and all available craft today are patrolling the waters of Long Island Sound in an attempt to find seven children who were last seen as they paddled a canoe from Fairfield Beach Thursday afternoon.

The canoe was found late yesterday floating bottom upward near Middle Ground light, 12 miles from shore. One of the children could swim.

The children who are missing: Alvin and Clifton Nordquist, 13, and 12 years old. Ethel and Walter Berquist, 12, and 14 years old.

Mrs. Anderson, 11. Florence Benson, 15. Ernest Peterson, 8.

The children were in bathing suits when they started paddling off in the sound. They had asked to rent a canoe, and when their request was refused they borrowed the boat and left 50 cents lying on the bank to pay for the use of the boat.

The only hope held for the safety of the children is that they were picked up by a passing vessel. Crews are working with grappling hooks in an attempt to find the bodies.

Boy Loses His Leg In A Machine

While assisting in cutting hay on land owned by the National Milling company, at National 3, Cecil township yesterday afternoon

10 o'clock, Mike Semurich, Jr., aged 13, son of Mike Semurich, of National 3, was caught by the cutter bar of a mowing machine and the left leg so badly lacerated that amputation was necessary.

The accident occurred, it is said, when the boy attempted to make the horses move more rapidly. Before he could step aside, the machine was upon him, and when the horses were halted, the leg was found to have been terribly mutilated.

"STILL LIVING AND IS VERY MUCH ALIVE"

Information elicited from the Memorial hospital at Monongahela this morning was to the effect that, the colored man, alleged to be one of the two colored men who shot and killed Constable William A. O. Cratty of North Charleroi, is "still living and is very much alive." From which the supposition can be adduced that he is convalescing from his wounds.

The Charleroi-Monessen hospital authorities stated that the condition of the other colored man was "about the same."

Hunted Gas Leak With Candle, Found It; Department Called

The large frame residence of George W. Brown, 33 Payne Place, adjoining the Payne M. E. church on the north, was damaged by fire yesterday at 4 p. m., to the extent of about $150. The lining of the attic walls, where the fire found its way, was the place most damaged; also the plastering on the two lower floors was damaged by water and chemicals.

A. J. Brown, who boards and rooms at the Brown home, had been doing some electric wiring in leisure time and he smelled gas leaking. Going to the attic Brown lighted a candle and then the gas ignited and filled the top floor with flames. Although burned on the hands by the flames, which set fire to the woodwork, Brown hastened to the basement and shut the gas off at the meter. The fire department was then called and extinguished the fire with a chemical.

CASE OF SMALLPOX IN CITY OF MONESSEN

Confirmation of the malady with which William Tracy, aged 26, colored, of Monessen, is afflicted, being smallpox, was definitely reported today. The case was discovered yesterday, and diagnosis of the disease today revealed that the first suspicions were not ill-founded. Tracey, who lives at 612 Chestnut street, Monessen, has been quarantined, together with 11 other inmates of the house, and a guard placed on the premises.

According to information received by the Mail, Tracey admitted having visited in the infected Woodworth avenue, Pittsburgh, district; at least, our information is to the effect that this is a smallpox infected area. The Monessen authorities have ordered 3,000 vaccine points from the state department of health, Harrisburg, and they are expected to arrive tomorrow. Vaccination will be made compulsory in certain sections of

Committee Votes That Sum As Least With Which Building Can Be Started—Hope For More As the Campaign Work Starts

ALL MONEY TO HOSPITAL

Gifts of Over $100 Pay In Five Years; Others Pay In One Year; Mine And Mill Employees to Get Credit for Gifts On Hospital Bills

At the meeting of the new hospital campaign committee yesterday noon, a motion carried unanimously setting $150,000 as the minimum amount of money to be raised for the purpose of constructing a modern fireproof hospital building at North Charleroi. As soon as this sum is raised it will be possible to proceed with the work of constructing the proposed new hospital. The sum asked for as the minimum goal will not be enough to build the kind of a hospital that this community should have, as that would require $200,000 or possibly a little more; but $150,000 of money subscribed will be sufficient to guarantee the remainder, it is believed by most of the members of the committee.

The executive committee meeting yesterday noon was reported to be a much better meeting than the one Thursday noon. There was no meeting today noon, but Kerfoot W. Daly has called a meeting of the committee for 12 o'clock at the Elks club on Monday and every day next week. Chairman Daly told the committee yesterday that it was important that the work be entered into earnestly by all members of the committee in order not to delay it and in order also to get the best results.

An important feature of the gifts will be that they will be payable over a period of five years if the subscribers wish. That applies particularly to the subscriptions of $100.00 or over. The purpose in giving this long time to pay was to enable the business and professional men to subscribe to the maximum.

These subscribers will make the first payment of their subscription on September 1, 1924, and the balance quarterly. Individual subscribers of less than $100 will pay quarterly and make the first payment on September 1, 1924, but they will pay their entire subscription (Continued on Page Two)

SCOUTS LEAVE FOR CAMP ON MONDAY

With Camp Underwood all ready for the large Boy Scout encampment this year, the first group of boys from Charleroi and Donora will leave on the opening day of camp, Monday, July 21, at 10 a. m. Bus transportation has been provided for all the boys. Miller & Coatsworth Bus Co. of Donora, will take care of the Charleroi and Donora boys, while the McMahon and Felmeth Co., of Monessen, will look after the Monongahela and Monessen boys. The following are the names of the boys who will leave for camp at 10 a. m., starting from the Pennsylvania station. Donora boys will leave on the same date at 10 a. m., daylight savings time, starting from the Miller & Coatsworth Bus station. Monday, August 4.—Monongahela boys will leave for camp at 10 a. m., starting from the City Hall. Monessen boys will leave at the same time, on the same date, starting from the Boy Scout headquarters, at Fifth and Donner, Monessen.

Registrations indicate that Camp Underwood will care for about 250 boys this year; that is, about 120 the first period, and 130 the second period. This is by far the largest encampment of Scouts that has ever been held in any place in Western Pennsylvania, and speaks well for the successful camping season of last year. The Scout Executive, H. S. Hall, announces that the water sterilizing unit has been installed and that the swimming pool has been completed. Visitors who will be received on Wednesday and Sunday afternoons and evenings, will rejoice to learn that a new road into camp has been prepared, and that it has been well marked with "Camp Underwood" road signs. During the past week 15 Junior Officers have been hard at work preparing the camp, and the program will immediately begin upon the arrival of the first group of Scouts.

The couple engaged in a heated argument over a sum of money, said to be $1,524, which Mrs. Foster has credited to her account in a Monongahela bank. It is alleged that during the argument Mrs. Foster felled her husband to the floor by striking him with a large glass mirror. With Foster lying stunned by the blow, Mrs. Foster went to the bank and drew her money and was about to leave the city, when she was arrested.

At a hearing held before Alderman Ellwood, both parties gave testimony. On advice, it was agreed to settle the case, draw separation papers, and live apart. Mrs. Foster agreed to give her husband one-half the household furniture.

Buccos Win From New York By Timely, Heavy Batting

Wilbur Cooper uncorked a world of smoke on the Giants yesterday, and his eight mates made John McGraw's marauders look still more foolish by smearing the ball in murderous fashion throughout the afternoon, and winning by the top-sided score of 9 to 2. The deciding marker was reeled off before the first Pirate had been retired in the opening frame. It was the second straight victory for Bill McKee's team, and also the second defeat in succession for the McGraws.

Cooper encountered a bit of tough luck in the beginning when three singles, one of which was scratchy, gave the foe one point for a starter in the first inning.

The Buccaneers, however, lost no time in proving to the southpaw ace that they were with him in spirit as well as in slugging humor, for they launched an attack the instant they took their initial turn at the stick, which dispatched Big Jack Bentley and then Wayland Dean, the fancy-priced recruit, who went to the rescue with nobody gone, was sent to the showers in the second chapter. Claude Jonnard finished the game and failed to check the assault to any great extent, but even if he had hurled airtight ball, the bacon already was absolutely safe.

MANAGER MATHERS PROMISES SURPRISE IN TODAY'S GAME

Manager D. Cleve Mathers promises a surprise in this afternoon's game between the Charleroi Independents and the Swissvale team. Mr. Mathers remarked to the writer yesterday: "You will see the best game of the year here tomorrow."

In looking up the records we find that the Swissvale club has beaten the best of the semi-professional teams of the Pittsburgh district; and while the aggregation is not well-known here, it is really one of the strongest in the Greater Pittsburgh district.

The contest is called for 3:30 o'clock, slow time and prospects augur for the usual large crowd of Saturday. Beauty and bingie will be in the points for Charleroi, and the team will be well fortified from an offensive and defensive standpoint.

$150,000 IS THE SUM HOSPITAL WANTS

Employees of mines and industries subscribing will have one year to pay their subscriptions and the subscriptions will be taken out of their pay, if they wish, and they will not be expected to pay when they are not working. If they are out of work, for example, three months in the year, their time of payment will be extended three months.

It has also been decided that employees of mines and mills subscribing on a yearly basis and paying through the company they work for on their subscriptions, will be entitled to credit on their hospital bills of the amount that they subscribed for the hospital building. This will enable all mine and mill employees to have advance credit in case of accident or sickness requiring care and treatment at the hospital.

All subscriptions of the public will go directly to the hospital fund. The expenses of the campaign have been provided for by the executive committee in order that every dollar subscribed by the public will mean 100 cents toward the hospital building fund.

GENUINE GAINSBOROUGH COMES TO LIFE

An authentic portrait by Gainsborough, painted in the 1760's, the re-discovery of which by Grosvenor B. Clarkson, former Director of the U. S. Council of National Defense, has stirred the art world. The subject, Mrs. David Garrison, wife of England's greatest actor, was a friend of Dr. Johnson, Gibbon and Horace Walpole. She is buried in Westminster Abbey. Valued by experts at more than $20,000, the painting passed unrecognized through a New York auction sale and cost Mr. Clarkson less than $1,000. It was later completely authenticated.

Why Keep to Right

"Keep to the Right" is not an arbitrary ruling, but has scientific basis owing to the fact that the majority of individuals are right-handed and the right half of the body keeping a little forward in walking it is natural to swing in that direction. The custom in many European cities of turning to the left is not considered logical by Americans.

Classes in the State

In every state the people are divided into three kinds, the rich, the very poor and those who are between them. Since, then, it is universally acknowledged the mean is the best, it is evident that even in respect to fortune a middle state is to be preferred; for that state is most likely to submit to reason.—Aristotle.

Losing Proposition

"Ever" time I puts up a petition," said Brother Williams, "I pray ter de good Lord ter keep de speedin' 'mobels from runnin' over me, an' I got good reasons ter make dat pra'r fer I done been run over two times, an' never got 'nuff damages ter make it worth while!"—Atlanta Constitution.

Foreign Patriots

The eight men of foreign birth who signed the federal Constitution were Elbridge Gerry, who was born in England; Francis Pickens, Wales; Robert Morris, England; James Smith, Ireland; Matthew Thornton, Ireland; George Taylor, Ireland; James Wilson, Scotland; John Witherspoon, Scotland.

Move Old Windmill

A century-old windmill has been moved in sections from its old site near Alaburgh, England, to another three miles inland, where it is being re-erected. It will be used to pump water into a storage tank with a capacity of 20,000 gallons, which is in course of construction.

THE COURTS' INTEGRITY.

We have boundless faith in the courts within our borders, federal, state and municipal.

The judges are governed by established precedents, and when the district attorneys logically present all the incriminating facts against violators of the prohibition laws, the inevitable result has been the imposition of sentences and fines. We believe this to be in the main true as reflects Washington county, in common with other counties. Judges are not bent upon their fellow citizens. They know the temper of public opinion. They are governed by the trend of the social mind.

The bootlegger hires lawyers to protect him, the people hire district attorneys to prosecute violators. When public opinion swings to the side of the district attorneys, they are heeded to prosecute vigorously. When judges learn that the public insist on fines and jail sentences to deter lawless individuals, they impose them.

No basis exists for destructive criticism of the attitude of the courts towards bootleggers in this state. The real cause of small fines and short jail sentences has its origin in the silence of citizens who never let the faithful official know that they appreciate his fidelity to his oath of office.

Former Vice President Marshall, says he never knew a President who was happy in the White House. However that may be, Mr. Marshall himself gave the impression that he got more cheerful satisfaction out of his job than any other Vice President of recent times.

In putting his newspaper under the editorial direction of "Col." George Harvey, Edward B. McLean has hardly improved his chances of "quick and easy access to the White House," with whose incumbent, according to report, Mr. Harvey has failed to "hit it off."

A baker with more "dough" than he needs has given Harvard $5,000,000, wherewith to teach business, which no doubt can be done, in the fundamentals, much better than the old-time business man supposed.

"The two parties think they are company and a third party would be a crowd."—Philadelphia Record. That depends on whether the party in no fear of a split in its own ranks is doing the thinking.

The new bank messenger who vanished with $45,000 in bonds is said to look like Trotsky and to come from Moscow, Pa. In any case the trustfulness of banks in these matters passes understanding.

Nothing is new under the sun, not even "getting rich quick," for King Solomon found occasion to remark that "he that maketh haste to be rich shall not be innocent."

East Indian Zobo

The zobo is a hybrid between the yak and the humped cattle of India. It is common in the western part of the Himalayas, and is used as a beast of burden as well as for its milk and its flesh. It resembles the English ox.

Cardboard Utensils

Kettles and pans made of cardboard have been patented by a German inventor. The material is dipped in a mixture containing asphalt and resin, which makes it waterproof and acid resisting.

Book's Real Value

The best of a book is not the thought which it contains, but the thought it suggests; just as the charm of music does not lie in the tones, but in the echoes of our hearts.

Wayside Text

It's a good thing that no hurricane can blow trouble off the earth, for folks need it to bring 'em to their senses when there's come mad with joy.—Atlanta Constitution.

Weak Humanity

Everyone of us, whatever our speculative opinions, knows better than he practices, and recognizes a better law than he obeys.—Froude.

Chinese "Exchange"

San Francisco has the only telephone exchange in America devoted exclusively to Chinese patrons.

TH' OLE GROUCH

I EXPECT YOU READERS THINK I'M AGIN BOBBED HAIR, BUT I AIN'T! I'VE HAD MY LESSON! WHEN TH' MEN STARTED SHAVIN' OFF THEIR BEARDS YEARS AGO, I SAID I'D NEVER LIKELY, AN' I SWORE TO NEVER PART WITH MINE! NOW I'M AS OUT-OF-DATE AS A LAST YEARS CROWN NEST, AN' FROM PRESENT INDICATIONS, TH' LADIES WHO DON'T BOB THEIR HAIR ARE GOIN' TO BE IN TH' SAME FIX!

THE OFFICE CAT

Law Perkins says, I'm glad Pa ain't addicted very much to the bath habit, Darnin' one pair of socks a week ain't much of a chore.

If progress had been left to the knackers, man would still be in the stone age.

Life would be easy if every man had nothing worse to worry about concerning his past than the theory of evolution.

What was all the racket in the barber shop. One of the barbers was shaving himself and trying to talk himself into a massage.

CLEVER BOY.

Faith was a preacher's daughter and she loved a gambler. The lovers knew that father would never give his consent. But the youth was a resourceful chap and approached the old gentleman in this way:

My good sir, I prayed that I might be worthy of your daughter's hand—but it seems useless—I have fallen into the old path again.

My boy, said the minister, be not discouraged. Pray again that you be given strength to mend your ways. But your prayers will be in vain unless you believe. Have Faith, my boy, you must have Faith. Thank you, sir, we'll be married to-day.

You never see a man unbuttoning his vest to pay a compliment to a dinner prepared with a can opener.

In the early days of the cavemen, there were no hotels, thus we presume that the first inn was a cave-in.

THE WRETCH.

Some fellows can get away with anything. There's one in our neighborhood who does it. Morals don't mean a thing to him. He has no regard for truth or law. He never thinks of paying a bill. We saw him take a two-dollar taxi ride without giving the driver a pleasant look. And the driver only looked at him and muttered something silly. He can't play cards or dance, or sing, or fool around with musical instruments. Or the radio. As a conversationalist, he's null and void. He neglects his appearance terribly. He hasn't shaved for weeks. He'd let the house burn down before he'd turn in a fire alarm. He lacks opinions. Even on the good old prohibition question nobody knows actually where he stands. One minute he's dry, and the next minute he's wet. But we will say this for him. He comes of a darn good family. He's our new baby.

FAMILIAR PHRASES.

Artesian Wells

A sparkling well bored down to a point, usually at a great depth, where the water pressure, owing to the conformation of the geological strata, is so great as to force the water out at the surface is known as an artesian well; the term is often applied, however, to a deep bored well, as for petroleum, and even where pumping is necessary, as in an ordinary driven well.

Rice Paper

Rice paper is made from a tree (Fatsia Arahia papyrifera) grown in Formosa. The pith, from one to one and one half inches in diameter, is opened out with a sharp knife and then pressed flat. From this, when dried, the best artificial flowers are made; it is also employed, chiefly in China and Japan, for pictorial designs highly colored.

What gets harder wear than a Boy's Shoe?

In the long run you'll find
Panco soles save you real dollars in repair bills.

Scuffing—sliding—scraping through hours of active play—it doesn't take long even for the best of leather to wear through.
But in Panco—you have a sole material that will DOUBBLE THE WEAR of kiddie's or grown up's shoes
—no matter how hard they use them.

PANCO

is not a substitute for leather—but an improvement on it. Tougher—more flexible—won't draw the tenderest feet. Gives unusual foot freedom and comfort. Looks well—and wears well. For school wear—for dress—Panco will prove the most satisfactory soles—and the most economical by far. You can prove it yourself. Take the kiddie's shoes to your neighborhood repair man today and have them whole-soled or tapped with Panco. Then check the wear they give them with any they have had before. You'll find Panco outwears by months any other soles you have ever tried!

Panco Rubber Co., Chelsea, Mass.

BOY KILLED

BY BEING HIT

BY A TRAIN

Pittsburgh, July 19.—Narol Hilty, aged 6, of Jefferson, Jefferson county, was killed instantly at 10 a. m. today when struck by a train on the Monongahela division of the Pennsylvania railroad at the Jefferson road, while crossing to his home.

The boy was returning from an errand to a neighboring grocery store, and it is thought attempted to beat the train crossing the grade crossing.

AMERICAN CONSUL

BEATEN TO DEATH

Teheran, Persia, July 19.—Major Imbrie, American consul, was beaten to death by a native mob here Thursday.

The Persians resented an attempt by Major Imbrie to photograph a so-called "magic fountain" of which the natives are in awe.

An American who was with the consul was severely wounded and is in a hospital.

Notice To Daughters of America. Members of Daughters of America, 162, of Charleroi, are requested to attend the funeral services of Mrs. Eagle, which take place tomorrow at 3 o'clock.

UNCLE SAM IS

BEHIND THE REPORT

Southampton, England, July 19.—"American sentiment is strongly behind the experts report as it now stands and we believe prompt execution of the plan is of the greatest consequence," Charles E. Hughes, American secretary of state, said today in an interview with the United Press upon his arrival aboard the Beaugarda.

Hughes was in a holiday mood, up and ashore before eight o'clock this morning, checking his baggage personally through the customs. He refused good naturedly to be drawn into a discussion of whether the experts plan could be altered.

The secretary of state also firmly declined to discuss international affairs, saying:

"I am looking forward with the happiest anticipation to meeting my colleagues of the Bar association. Otherwise, my visit to Europe is a private one."

Hughes will attend a convention of the Bar association and afterwards visit Paris and probably Berlin.

DR. VALERA IS AN

EDUCATED GENTLEMAN

Dublin, July 19.—It was learned today that Eamonn De Valera, erstwhile "president of the Irish republic," who was released from a Free State internment camp this week, after a year's imprisonment, spent his time in captivity studying Einstein's theory of relativity. De Valera was at one time a professor of mathematics.

Tailors of Tooley Street

When Canning was prime minister of England three tailors met in Tooley street, London, for the redress of popular grievances. They drew up a petition to the house of commons beginning, "We, the people of England." Hence, "the three tailors of Tooley street" came to be applied to any pettifogging clique which gets the notion it represents the voice of the people.

The "three tailor" incident suggests a similar one in France. When Charles VIII was king the "deputies of Yaguirard" presented themselves at the palace. The sovereign asked how many of the deputies there were. "Only one, and please your majesty," replied the usher.—Detroit News

Giants of Old

It is impossible to give the height of "the tallest giant ever known on earth." One skeleton unearthed in Lucerne is said to have measured 17 feet. Another, in Crete, is stated to have been 20 feet; another, found in Sicily, "if human," makes the original owner to have been 300 feet tall.

Took Pains to Soothe

"Man's" Ruffled Feeling

As anyone knows who has read that brilliant but rather disconcerting novel, "The Way of All Flesh," Samuel Butler was not a slavish admirer of the institution of the family. His own life at home had not been happy, and we remember that in his "Note-Books" he referred to some Biblical character--Melchizedek, was it not?--as a "really happy man--without father, without mother and without descent." But Butler, no more than the rest of us could get along without affection. He had a few close friends and was most faithful perhaps to the least deserving. There was a curious relationship between Butler and his man servant, Alfred. What it was like can best be illustrated by a letter that Alfred wrote him in 1891.

"Dear Sir, I hope you arrived quite safe on Tuesday and found your sister well. . . . I have a little complaint to make. You never looked out of the carriage to see me standing on the platform, as I always do. There was I standing in the rain, and you never looked at me.

"Yours truly,
"ALFRED."

On receiving the letter Alfred sent an apology by telegram, and Alfred replied: "Received telegram this morning; thank you. I showed it to Mr. Jones, and he laughed. I forgive you.
